TAYLOR& HUFTY,

933 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, Washington, D. C., Have during the past few weeks been steadily adding to their supply of LADIES' AND MISSES' SUITS and as a result have one of the largest and most varied assortments to be found in America. Immediately that a new article is brought or. by the leaders of the mode they take measures to be supplied with it, so that their lady patrons can always find what they want, or what has been suggested to their fancy anywhere.

In PERCALE SUITS their stock is complete. They show Plain and Combination Por-cales, in Checks and Stripes, and in all colors and shades. The most fastidious taste cannot escape being satisfied, and the prices range as follows: $5, $4, $5, $5.75 and $6. In CAMBRIC SUITS they have all shades of Blue, Green, Black and Brown, and with Trimmings, embracing Bands, Pialtings, Lace and Embroideries. The prices are: $1, $4.50, $5, $5.50, $6, $6.50, $7.25, $8, $11.37 and $12. CAMBRIC OVERSKIRTS and BASQUES, in all shades of Blue, Black, Green and Brown,

$4, $5 and $61 A full and very elegant line of entirely NEW LANEN UITS, trimmed in novel and striking designs, and extending in price from $3 to $15.50. for mutual confidence is an essential of the Linen Overskirts and Basques, in endless va-riety, trimmed in Plaitings, Embroideries, Laces and Braided, in all colors and shapes, and at prices from $3 to $12.75. Polonaises trimmed in Bands, Plaitings and Braids, from $4 to $13.50.

LADIES' SUMMER ULSTERS, an indispensable and very "tone-y" garment, in all the latest shapes and with different trimmings, and of all sizes, lengths and dimensions, at moderate figures, running from $2.50 to $7.50. The grand department of WHITE SUITS is one of the most important of this house. The stock is large but well selected and unsurpassed for design. for design, make and finish throughout. The different patterns of suits embrace Polonaises or Overskirts and Basques at reduced prices, running from $5 to $18; also White Overskirts and Basques from $3 to $14 50. A line of very graceful Polonaises marked lown to rates varying from $3 to $10. Particular attention is called to a lot of stylish White Basques, trimmed with Lace Embroideries, Laces and Ruffles, and marked only $2.50 to $8.

They will open this week a new and very su-perior line of first class LINEN and CAMBRIC SUITS. These will be trimmed with handsome shaded and tinted embroideries, in all the new and becoming colors. They will be marked at the lowest possible figures, and we predict will just suit the taste of ladies who appreciate artistic things.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 24.

Your Gifts to the Bride.

MR. JOHNSTON WILL TAKE 'EM OFF HER HAND ; AT A FAIR CASH VALUATION. The following advertisement has appeared daily for months in one of the New York pa-

DUPLICATE WEDDING PRESENTS bought or exchanged. Address J. H. JOHNSTON, Jeweler, 150 Bowery

It is a contine business advertisement, however. A World reporter called upon Mr. John. ston yesterday at his store, at the corner of Broome street, and found him willing to talk. A jeweller by trade, Mr. Johnston is a man o' many resources and one who prides himself upon his knowledge of human nature. He is, moreover, a man of good education, and entertained Walt Whitman at his house when he was in this city. In answer to the reporter's inquiries Mr. Johnston said that the jewelry business is dull just now, but the traffic in "du-plicate wedding presents" is particularly lively. He receives numerous answers to his advertise ment, some of them from people well known in society; he visits them at their houses, appraises their goods and buys them, if they wish to

"What do you pay for goods and how?" ask ed the reporter. "For silverware" was the reply, "I pay by the ounce, say from $1 to $3 an ounce. For jewelry I pay what I consider a fair market price, according to the value of the articles. What do I do with my purchases? Why, I sell them again, either to the customers of my store or to dealers at a small advance on the purchase price, and always for less than they could possibly be bought for in the regular way. Here, for example, is a fine silver kettle l bought at half its actual value and put in the window. Yesterday one of the firm that made it called in and offered to buy it at my own price. He said he did not want it kicking around town' with his mark on it. Here is a lot of silver which recently figured among the presents at a fashionable wedding. It cost $850, and weighs 150 ounces. I paid $300 for it, and I will sell it for $350. And here is a solid silver tea-set that cost $900, and I can sell it at $400 and make a good profit.

"What class of people sell their we'ding presents?" "All classes, especially in these times. Money is too valuable to be locked up in useless silver kettles and urns that you have to pay for keeping in a safe deposit company. Whenever I read of a stylish wedding somewhere I look at the list of presents, and I know that I shall have a customer before long. They all claim to sell only duplicate presents, of course. It is edged with all the stylish tints and trimmed in none of my business to ask where the dupli-Embroideries, Bands and Torchon Lace, at $3, cates are. I buy whatever I can sell at a profit. voila tout. Of course, my business is contiden tial: I am as silent as the tomb, I have to be,

> A recent purchase of Mr. Johnston's is a beautiful pearl necklace which, he says, recent ly adorned the neck of a bride whose marriage was a society sensation; another is a pair of bracelets, valued in the market at $1,200, and still another is an S carat diamond, for which he asks $7,000. "You have no idea of the extent of the business," said he, showing these articles:—"Why, there are families in this city who have been living ever since the panie of 1873 upon their plate and jewelry, and keeping up appearances, too. See that silver pitcher; that was presented years ago to a well-known gentleman by A. T. Stewart, Wm. B. Astor, Brown Broth ers and others. He died some time ago and the pitcher passed into the hands of some relatives or friends who got har! up, and here it is I will sell it for $250. There, on the side were the names of Stewart and Astor. I crased them. and if you want to present it to President Hayes I will engrave his name on it and give it to you

Physicians on Temperance,-The Mon treal Witness says: "Representatives of the medical faternity have been in council at To ronto, and one of the questions which they have been considering has been the evil of intemperance. They seem to be impressed with the truth of the proverb that 'charity should begin at home,' and so they began there, several of them saying that whiskey was the bane of the profession, and that it was instrumental in carrying off more of their number than any disease. A committee was appointed to draft a resolution embodying the meas of the council on the subject. The medical men of Montreal have long ago expressed themselves decidedly against the use of stimulants over their win signatures. But that was hardly so voluntary an expression of opinion as this. Then their signatures to the document were secured by a personal canvass; now, assembled in council
